He worked as an officer for the Salinas Police Department from 1968 to 1970, before coming to UC Santa Barbara in 1970. He rose through the ranks becoming a sergeant in 1973. He transferred to the UC Davis Police Department in 1978 as a lieutenant. He returned to UC Santa Barbara's Police Department as a lieutenant in 1979. He served as the Acting Chief of Police from 1985 to 1987, when he was appointed Chief of Police at UC Santa Barbara. He remained at the UCSB Police Department until his retirement in early 2004. During his career, he worked patrol, investigations, and administration. He was the recipient of the H. Thomas Guerry award in 1973. In addition, he donated his time to Big Brothers, Big Sisters of Santa Barbara; the Cub Scouts; and Little League baseball. He also served as a basketball coach for Lompoc Middle School.

"Our entire campus community is deeply saddened by the death of retired UCSB police Chief John MacPherson," said UCSB Chancellor Henry T. Yang. "Mac was a dedicated, important, and valued member of our UCSB family. His leadership and concern for the safety and well being of our students and all members of our community were exemplary. Our campus appreciated and respected his sound judgment and sensitivity. Our hearts go out to his wife Cindy and all members of his family, as well as to his former colleagues in our Police Department."

Bill Bean, acting Chief of Police of the UCSB Police Department, said that MacPherson would be dearly missed. "Mac will always be remembered for his compassion and consideration for others. He loved people and conversed easily with everyone he came in contact with."

Said Acting Vice-Chancellor of Administrative Services Donna Carpenter: "Since 1970 until his retirement, Mac served UCSB with compassion, integrity, and loyalty. He had a distinguished career, implementing innovative programs and always striving to make UCSB a safer place. Mac will be missed by the campus community, not only as a colleague, but as a good friend."
